NOTICE OF LIQUIDATION AND TIME FOR FILING PROOFS OF CLAIM

TO POLICYHOLDERS, CLAIMANTS, CREDITORS, AND OTHER INTERESTED PARTIES HAVING BUSINESS WITH CREDIT GENERAL INSURANCE COMPANY OR CLAIMS AGAINST POLICYHOLDERS FORMERLY INSURED BY CREDIT GENERAL INSURANCE COMPANY.

On January 5, 2001, Credit General Insurance Company was determined to be insolvent and ordered liquidated by Judge Beverly Pfeiffer of the Court of Common Pleas, Franklin County, Ohio, Case No. 00CVH11-9867. J. Lee Covington, II, Ohio Superintendent of Insurance, was appointed as Liquidator pursuant to Ohio Revised Code Chapter 3903 (the "Liquidator"). It is the Liquidator's responsibility to collect all of the assets of Credit General Insurance Company and distribute them to policyholders and other creditors of Credit General Insurance Company according to priorities established under Ohio law.

The Liquidation Order requires the Liquidator to take control of all of Credit General Insurance Company's assets. The Liquidation Order also enjoins all persons from (1) instituting or continuing to prosecute any civil action or claim against Credit General Insurance Company or the Liquidator, (2) in any way interfering with the possession, control, title, rights, and interests of the Liquidator as provided by Ohio Revised Code Sections 3903.01 to 3903.99, inclusive, or (3) taking any action which tends to give rise to waste of assets, a preference, judgment, attachment, lien or the making of a levy against Credit General Insurance Company or its property or assets subject to the possession or control of the Liquidator.

All insurance policies, bonds, and other similar obligations or contracts of Credit General Insurance Company are cancelled by Order of the Court 30 days from the date of the Final Order of Liquidation, which will cause the cancellation to be effective no later than 12:01 a.m., February 4, 2001, except those policies, which expired or were cancelled by the insured before such date, shall remain expired or cancelled as of such earlier date.

The Liquidation Court has further ordered that all persons having claims against the assets of Credit General Insurance Company must file such claims with the Liquidator on Proof of Claim forms on or before January 31, 2002. Any person filing claims with the Liquidator after such date may receive no distribution or a distribution less than they would have otherwise received. Any and all outstanding claims, including those presented to Credit General Insurance Company prior to its having been placed in liquidation, must be submitted to the Liquidator on Proof of Claim forms approved and provided by the Liquidator. If the records of Credit General Insurance Company indicate you are a creditor of Credit General Insurance Company, you will be mailed a Proof of Claim form within the next 120 days to be used in filing a claim in the liquidation proceedings. A Proof of Claim form must be used for making a claim for any amounts owed to you by Credit General Insurance Company. If you believe you have a claim against Credit General Insurance Company and you do not receive a Proof of Claim form, please request one in writing and state the nature of your claim. THE DEADLINE FOR COMPLETING AND FILING A PROOF OF CLAIM WITH THE LIQUIDATOR IS JANUARY 31, 2002.

The Liquidation Order triggered certain obligations of state insurance guaranty funds/associations. These guaranty funds/associations were established by the laws of each state to provide important, but limited, protection to policyholders against an insolvent insurance company's failure to perform its contractual obligations under its policies of insurance. Amounts not covered by the guaranty fund/association (excluding guaranty fund/association statutory deductibles) remain claims against the assets of Credit General Insurance Company's liquidation estate and a Proof of Claim for such amounts must be timely filed with the Liquidator. Such amounts will be independently evaluated by the Liquidator in the normal course of the liquidation proceeding.

THIS NOTICE OF TIME FOR FILING PROOFS OF CLAIM APPLIES TO ANY POTENTIAL CLAIMANT ASSERTING A CLAIM AGAINST ANY POLICYHOLDER FORMERLY INSURED BY CREDIT GENERAL INSURANCE COMPANY. THIS TIME LIMITATION APPLIES NOTWITHSTANDING ANY STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS OTHERWISE APPLICABLE TO SUCH CLAIMS.

Questions and general inquiries concerning the liquidation should be directed to the Office of the Ohio Insurance Liquidator, 1366 Dublin Road, Columbus, Ohio 43215, telephone number (614) 487-9200.

CREDIT GENERAL INSURANCE COMPANY, IN LIQUIDATION
CLAIM NOTICE AND CLAIM FILING PROCEDURES

1. Proof of Claim forms are anticipated to be mailed within the next 120 days to known policyholders/insureds and claimants with known claims, and to other creditors as reflected on the books and records of Credit General Insurance Company. The Proof of Claim should be completed in its entirety and all questions answered. You must file a separate Proof of Claim for each claim you are making.
2. Your Proof of Claim form and all supporting documentation must be filed with the Liquidator on or before the Claim Filing Deadline of January 31, 2002, established by the Liquidation Court.
3. If your claim is for unearned premium, you must submit documentation evidencing proof of premium payment and certify that you have not received the return of premium from your agent or broker, and/or that it has not been applied/credited to premium due by you for your new/replacement coverage.
4. If you do not have a claim at this time, you should keep the Proof of Claim form and submit it, together with supporting documentation, should you become aware of a claim made, or to be made, against you. All claims must be filed by the Claim Filing Deadline of January 31, 2002.
5. If you move after receiving this Notice, it is your responsibility to provide us with your new address. Failure to do so may result in your claim being barred from participating in any distribution of assets. Be sure you include the Liquidator No. from your Proof of Claim and the Claim No. with any change of address correspondence.
6. The Liquidator, in the normal course of the liquidation proceeding, will independently evaluate claims made against the assets of Credit General Insurance Company.
7. When your claim is evaluated by the Liquidator, you will be notified as to the Liquidator's Determination for the allowance or disallowance of your claim, and you will have 60 days from the date of the notice to submit a written objection if you disagree.
8. Claims received against Credit General Insurance Company will be evaluated and determined in accordance with the priority of claim classes established by Ohio law (see Ohio Revised Code, Section 3903.42). After all claims have been evaluated and determined as to class and amount, if necessary, the Liquidator will seek approval from the Liquidation Court to make a disbursement of assets based upon the priority of claim classes. The amount to be paid will depend on the amount of assets collected by the Liquidator and the amount of claims in each priority class. As claims are paid, the highest priority class of claims is paid first and every claim in each successive class must be paid in full before members of the next lower priority class receive any payment. If there are not sufficient assets to pay a particular class in full, the creditors of that class will share in any distribution on a pro rata basis based upon the assets available and the total amount of claims in that class. The Liquidator will not know the distribution percentage that can be paid on any individual claim until all claims are evaluated and all assets are converted to cash. This process may take a number of years after the January 31, 2002 deadline has passed for filing Proofs of Claim, and the Liquidator cannot state at this time if, or when, any distribution of assets will be made on allowed claims.
