

Biennial License Renewal Conversion

RESIDENT Individual Agent (Major LOA or Title)

Currently Assigned to the 12/31/2010 CE Compliance Period

Individual resident insurance agents who have a compliance period due date of December 31, 2010, shall renew their license by the last day of their birth month in 2011. Agents born in the months of January, February, March, April or May will have a delayed initial renewal date of June 30, 2011. On-going renewal periods for all agents shall be the last day of their birth month every two years thereafter.

Resident individual agents should have their 20 CE credits (10 credits for title agents) completed by December 31, 2010. Any resident agent who did not have their required CE credits completed by December 31, 2010, have until their renewal date in which to complete the credits, but will be charged a one-hundred dollar extension fee in addition to any other required fees. All CE credits must be completed prior to license renewal.

After the 2011 license renewal cycle, on-going renewal periods for agents shall be the last day of their birth month every two years. Resident agents will be required to complete 24 CE credits (3 of which must be approved as ethics) and Title agents will be required to complete Title specific CE credits pursuant to Ohio Administrative Code 3901-5-01 (D) prior to renewal of the license.
