

IMPORTANT — READ CAREFULLY
INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING AND FILING PROOF OF CLAIM
YOUR IMMEDIATE ATTENTION REQUIRED
LIQUIDATION OF THE OHIO GENERAL INSURANCE COMPANY

1. On March 28, 1990, The Ohio General Insurance Company was declared insolvent and ordered liquidated by Judge Michael L. Close of the Franklin County Court of Common Pleas of Ohio, 369 South High Street, Columbus, Ohio 43215. The Court further ordered that all policies of insurance be cancelled no later than 12:01 a.m. April 28, 1990.
2. The coverages written by The Ohio General Insurance Company include all property and casualty lines of business including, but not limited to, fire, homeowners, commercial multiple peril, auto, truck, aircraft and other liability.
3. The enclosed Proof of Claim ("proof") original and two copies, is to be completed in detail. Return the original and yellow copy in the envelope provided to the address indicated at the bottom of this page. RETAIN THE PINK COPY FOR YOUR RECORDS.
4. ALL POLICYHOLDERS with previously reported claims, new claims, or claims against them by other parties should check the first box indicating "Claim is made for policyholder protection up to the limits of the policy". Filing your proof will place the Liquidator on notice of the claim. This will register your claim in the liquidation proceedings. You should file a separate proof for each separate claim that is known to you. You must file a Proof of Claim even if the claim against you (the insured) is in suit. Do not file this Proof of Claim unless you are aware of a claim and can factually support it. If you have no known claim, keep your Proof of Claim and file it immediately when you become aware of a claim. If you fail to adequately describe and document your claim, for purposes of this liquidation, your Proof of Claim will be valued at zero dollars or, at the sole discretion of the Liquidator, your Proof of Claim may be returned, and will not be registered into the liquidation proceeding.
 - 4a. If your policy was cancelled prior to its normal expiration date as a result of the liquidation, you should check the second box indicating "Claim is made for the return of premium due to early cancellation". You do not need to state an amount of return premium since the Liquidator will calculate return premium.
 - 4b. If the premium is part of a mortgage loan or otherwise financed by a premium finance company, bank, savings and loan association or other financial institution, be sure to furnish this information.
5. PERSONS HAVING CLAIMS AGAINST POLICYHOLDERS should check the third box of the Proof of Claim form. This proof must be filed, even though the claim was presented to the policyholder and/or the company prior to the liquidation, and even though a lawsuit has been filed against the policyholder and/or the company. Failure to file this proof will jeopardize your claim in the liquidation. If you fail to provide an adequate description or documentation to support your claim, your Proof of Claim will be valued at zero dollars or at the sole discretion of the Liquidator, your Proof of Claim may be returned, and will not be registered into the liquidation proceeding.
6. ALL OTHER CLAIMANTS should check the appropriate boxes, enter the amount claimed and provide documentation to support the claim. If the amount of claim is not known at this time, please enter "Unstated Amount". If you fail to provide an adequate description or documentation to support your claim, your Proof of Claim will be valued at zero dollars or at the sole discretion of the Liquidator, your Proof of Claim may be returned, and will not be registered into the liquidation proceeding.
7. THE PERSON FILING THIS CLAIM (the "claimant") must fill in their social security number, phone number, and must sign and date the Proof of Claim. Claims filed by corporations must be signed by an authorized representative of the company. You should also provide your attorney's name and address in the box provided if you are represented by an attorney in this matter.
8. All written instruments, including but not limited to, letters of intent to sue, Summons and Complaints, written or other notices by claimants or claimants' representatives, and your description or explanation of the claim must be filed with this proof. If such instruments are lost or destroyed, a statement of that fact and the circumstances of such loss or destruction must be filed under oath with this proof.
9. THE DEADLINE FOR FILING CLAIMS IS MARCH 28, 1991. If additional or duplicate proofs are needed, please make your request in writing with sufficient information to locate our file at least twenty (20) days prior to the deadline. However, if you become aware of a claim after the deadline, immediately fill out or obtain from us a Proof of Claim form and send it to us.
10. During the course of this liquidation proceeding, parties filing claims with the Liquidator must notify the Liquidator of their mailing address changes.
11. If you have any questions regarding the documentation or description of your claim, please contact the Liquidation Office at the address or telephone number listed below.

FILING A PROOF OF CLAIM DOES NOT BY ITSELF GUARANTEE COVERAGE OR ANY REFUND OF PREMIUM TO POLICYHOLDERS.

CLAIMS WHICH MAY BE COVERED UNDER AN INSURANCE GUARANTY ASSOCIATION ACT WILL BE FORWARDED TO THE APPROPRIATE GUARANTY ASSOCIATION FOR PROCESSING. IF SUCH CLAIMS ARE SUBJECT TO A STATUTORY DEDUCTIBLE, ANY CLAIM WITHIN THE DEDUCTIBLE AMOUNT AND ANY CLAIM NOT COVERED BY THE GUARANTY ASSOCIATION WILL REMAIN AS A CREDITOR'S CLAIM IN THE LIQUIDATION PROCEEDING.
