

Instructions for Submitting an Electronic License Renewal Application

- Step 1) Access the National Insurance Producer Registry (NIPR) system (www.nipr.com) and submit a renewal application.
- a) On the left hand side of NIPR's home page, under the Electronic Licensing Heading, select the "Renewals" link under Non-Resident Producer.
 - b) Scroll down to bottom of NIPR Non-Resident Renewal page and read the announcement to ALL applicants and the Requirements information.
 - c) Click the Begin button.
 - d) Read the Use Agreement and click on the Accept button.
 - e) Select from the drop down options your Resident State.
 - f) Enter you Resident License Number.
 - g) Select "Business" as your License Type.
 - h) Select "Apply to renew an existing Non-Resident License or resume an existing renewal application."
 - i) In the appropriate box, enter either the Business Entity's tax identification number (FEIN) or the Business Entity's NPN.
 - j) Click the Next button.
 - k) Select the License Class you wish to renew.
 - l) Click the Next button.
 - m) Follow the remaining instructions provided by NIPR, including the payment of fees.

- Step 2) Pay all applicable fees.

Fees:

- $5.00 NIPR electronic application processing fee
- $25.00 Renewal fee
- $50.00 Late Filing fee*
(*Assessed to all agents who fail to renew by their license expiration date, but submit a renewal application during the one month grace period. This fee is in addition to the renewal fee.)
- $100.00 Reinstatement fee*
(*Assessed to all agents who submit a renewal application within 11 months of their license being suspended. This fee is in addition to the renewal fee).

- Step 3) Provide the Department with any additional documentation, if required, by using the NIPR Attachment Warehouse (<https://pdb.nipr.com/docMgmt/main.html>) or by e-mailing the information to the ODI Licensing Division (licensing@insurance.ohio.gov).
